Dear ~~Mr. Waters~~:

As a follow-up to our conversation last week, this letter sets out the next steps you must take related to the review of your manuscript. As we indicated in our earlier correspondence, after making the changes to the manuscript delineated in our 15 February 2006 letter, you must resubmit the manuscript for final Agency review prior to publication.

If you add material to or change the manuscript the Board has reviewed, you must submit these additions or changes to us before giving them to your publisher or anyone else. Please mark or otherwise indicate the new material clearly so we can expedite our review. Additional items that require submission include, but are not limited to, photographs, photograph captions, illustrations, diagrams, tables, charts, or maps.

You must submit any additional galley proofs of the final manuscript, as it will appear in book form, so the Board can verify that the soon-to-be-published version is the approved version. Your responsibility as the author is to ensure that the publisher releases only the Board-approved version. We will work promptly to complete this final review but please ensure that the publishing schedule permits adequate time for the Board to complete its work.
